Subject: Microsoft Judgment Remedy

Dear Judge,

According to my understanding of the case the proposed remedy by Microsoft is to propagate the Windows OS into schools that currently do not have computers. While on the surface this might seem like a beneficial compromise I would like to point out that this is in fact the DOJ providing Microsoft with a government sponsored captive distribution channel. This remedy is so far from a real remedy that it is laughable.

Why is the DOJ offering Microsoft a remedy that is overpoweringly beneficial to Microsoft?
